Baby Let's Dance Waltzes Over the Line In the Norgor

Don Farris Trainee Wins by Daylight

Ruidoso Downs, N.M. – Once she overcame her outside post position, Baby Let's dance unleashed her trademark stretch kick to win Sunday's $78,000 Norgo Futurity at Ruidoso Downs, Ruidoso Downs, N.M.

Baby Let's Dance and jockey Duane Sterling won the 5-1/5 furlong race by running off the pace, traveling wide around the turn, and booging down the stretch to win by an authoritative two lengths. The pair traveled the distance in 1:06.0 while holding off a challenge from long shot Two Storm and Mike Lingberg. Post-time favorite Joe Bobs Blowout was eased in the turn for home and did not finish the race.

Baby Let's Dance was one of three horses saddled in the Norgor by Don Farris. The 2-year-old New Mexico-bred filly is owned by R. D. Hubbard of Ft. Worth, Texas and Ed Allred of Long Beach, Calif.

"I thought Baby Let's Dance would be the winner of the three," Farris said following the race. "Tellum Dear finished about where I expected, but Western Stage disappointed me. He went out early, but then he just quit."

Baby Let's Dance was sent off as the second favorite and paid $4.80 to win, $4 to place and $2.80 to show. Two Storm paid $9.40 and $5.20, and La Terres Tab finished third and paid $6.40.

Ruidoso Downs' Fathers' Day Giveaway netted Jerry Turner of Ruidoso a one-year membership at the Links at Sierra Blanca and Dorothy Kelly of Odessa, Texas, $500.

Total Attendance for the day was 4,574 with a total handle of $433,196.
